Where figures have been rounded, discrepancies may occur between sums of the component items and totals.

Analysis of Table 1.1

The mean population for 1993-1994 increased by 21,300 over 1992-1993, 7% more than the 19,900 increase between 1991-1992 and 1992-1993.

The mean population for the 1993 calendar year increased by 19,100 on 1992. The increase was less than the 1992 increase of 21,300 over 1991.

In the June quarter 1994, Western Australia's population grew by 6,300 persons to 1,701,900. The increase was less than the March quarter 1994, but more than all quarters in 1993.

Analysis of Table 1.2

In the June 1994 quarter, increases were recorded for each population component. The total increase was down on the total increase for March 1994 quarter, with the largest contributor to the decrease being net estimated overseas migration, down 2,500.

Net estimated interstate migration, which increased by 500, recorded the only increase from the March quarter. This continues the increase over the previous three quarters and is the fifth consecutive positive quarter.

The number of divorces registered in the 1993-1994 financial year increased by 549 over the previous financial year. Over the same time period, the number of marriages registered remained relatively unchanged. September quarter 1994 divorces rose slightly by 50 from June quarter.

For September quarter 1994 there was a large decrease of 1,024 marriages and 192 births from June quarter 1994. The number of deaths increased by 294 over the same period. These figures illustrate a trend for more people to die and less people to marry during the winter months.

Infant deaths remained unchanged from June quarter 1994.

Analysis of Table 1.4

Rates for live births and marriages dropped in September quarter 1994, matching the decline of numbers from June quarter 1994. For live births, the rate fell from 15.18 to 14.67, following a similar occurrence in 1993. For marriages the rate declined from 5.85 in June quarter to 3.43, matching a similar decline in 1993 when the rate fell from 5.88 to 3.46.

The rate for total deaths increased from 5.93 to 6.60 in September quarter 1994 which followed a similar occurrence in 1993. There was a slight rise in the divorce rate from 3.02 to 3.13 and in the infant death rate for September quarter 1994.

Analysis of Table 2.7

Whilst the availability of all types of tourist accommodation in Western Australia has increased steadily over the last few years, there has been substantial growth in the numbers of Holiday Flats, Units and Houses available for letting. This is well indicated by increases of 5.1% in 1991-92 and 5.2% in 1992-93. The Tourism Industry has continued to meet this demand for self catering, self contained accommodation in 1993-94 resulting in an increase of 11.6% to 2,224 units as at 30 June 1994.

Analysis of Table 4.1

The data in this table have been revised and now show data from the redesigned Retail Business Survey. See Information Paper (8511.0) issued on 1 December 1994 or Retail Trade Australia (8501.1) for more detail on the survey redesign.

Estimated turnover of Western Australian retail establishments during March 1995 was $922.0 million (at current prices), an increase of 9.8% over the previous month. The trend estimates however show a decrease of 0.4% over the previous month.

From March 1994 to March 1995, trend estimates indicate a national annual growth rate of 6.3%. The annual growth rate for Western Australia for the same period was 2.9%.

The national trend estimates show increases of 0.3%, 0.2% and 0.2% for the months of January, February and March 1995. For the same three months, Western Australia recorded decreases of 0.2%, 0.3% and 0.4% respectively.

Analysis of Table 4.2

The Consumer Price Index (CPI) Perth All Groups March quarter 1995 increased by 1.8% over the preceding quarter. Contributors to the increase were housing (up 5.6%); food (up 3.3%); transportation (up 1.8%); tobacco and alcohol (up 1.3%); health and personal care (up 1.3%). Partially offsetting the above were falls in clothing (down 0.5%); and recreation and education (down 0.4%), and Household Equipment and Operation (down 0.1%).

The following sub-groups had a significant impact on the rise from the December 1994 quarter to the March quarter 1995: mortgage interest charges; fresh fruit & vegetables; automotive fuel; cigarettes and tobacco; and pharmaceuticals (mainly due to the reduced effect of the PBS safety net scheme).

The increase in the CPI from March 1994 to March 1995 was 4.1%. Contributing most to the annual increase were housing (up 11.5%); tobacco and alcohol (up 5.6%); transportation (up 4.7%); health and personal care (up 4.2%); food (up 4.4%); recreation and education (up 4.1%). The major offsetting factor in this annual change was a decrease in clothing (down 1.2%).

Analysis of Table 6.4

When compared with the previous year, coal production in 1993-94 fell by 5.4% to 5,151,000 tonnes. All of this shortfall occurred in the last quarter of the year and was caused by the undertaking of a major economic rationalisation process by coal producers. A general move away from underground mining was the major consequence of this rationalisation.

GSP grew steadily in the December quarter, rising 1.5% to be 8.0% higher than at the same time in 1993. Wages, salaries and supplements rose 1% to match the corresponding Australian rate, and grew 3.8% over the year to December quarter. Strong growth in the last four quarters contributed to a 16.1% increase in indirect taxes less subsidies over the year to December quarter.

FOR MORE INFORMATION . . .

The ABS publishes a wide range of information on Australia's economic and social conditions. A catalogue of publications and products is available from any of our Offices (see below for contact details).

Information Consultancy

Special tables or in-depth data investigations are provided by the Information Consultancy in each of our Offices (see below for contact details).

Electronic Data Services

A growing range of our data is available on electronic media. The ABS intends discontinuing its statistical information service on DISCOVER. Please contact Peter Davidson (Phone 06 252 6684) to discuss possible alternatives for acquiring statistics or if you wish to comment on our proposal. Our Telestats service delivers major economic publications ready to download into your computer on the day of release. Our Ausstat service enables on-line access to a data base of thousands of up-to-date time series. Selected datasets are also available on diskette or CD-rom. For more details on our electronic services, contact Information Service in any of our Offices on the numbers below.

Bookshops and Subscriptions

There are over 500 titles available from the ABS Bookshops in each of our Offices. You can also receive any of our publications on a regular basis. Join our subscription mailing service and have your publications mailed to you in Australia at no additional cost.
